FALL (SEP - DEC)
SPRING (JAN - APR)
SUMMER (MAY - AUG)

Academic Enrichment Programs

Grade 7-9 Academic Writing I

The Academic Writing program is designed to prepare Secondary students for the myriad of writing assignments as they transition from Primary school to challenging Secondary-level writing, to, eventually, college. Students learn the fundamental genre conventions necessary to write effectively within the persuasive, expository, descriptive, and fiction genres in the lower levels. At higher levels, students tackle increasingly complex forms of writing and the emphasis moves to developing their ideas and writing style. Through every level, the course ensures that students learn important writing habits that will serve them through the rest of their education and career. In addition, students expand their critical thinking by engaging with writing tasks through an analytical standpoint as opposed to rote learning of expected structures and conventions. Finally, reading is a large aspect of the course as students turn to reading to both gain a greater appreciation of what makes an effective text as well as to expand their vocabulary.

Perfect for students who:

- Are looking to hone their writing skills to bolster their grades at school and beyond
- Need a toolset to tackle any writing assignment confidently
- Struggle with organising their ideas
- Want to find ways to express themselves more eloquently and fluently in writing

Grade 7-9 Research, Rhetoric, Analysis, and Problem Solving

With content driven by contentious world events and complex hypothetical scenarios, the Research, Rhetoric, Analysis, and Problem Solving III course further develops students' ability to think critically, decide quickly, and speak effectively. While speaking style is still critiqued, the primary focus of this course is to deliver advanced material for students to discuss while cultivating more advanced aspects of thinking such as logical progression, devil's advocate considerations, optimal decision-making, and rhetorical strategies. In each class, students are introduced to an issue of either local, regional, or international importance or a fictitious scenario with numerous conflicting dilemmas and are guided by the instructor to explore the legal, economic, business, political, and/or moral ramifications of the event. Students who fully commit to this course will walk away with a wide-ranging critical thinking methodology that can be applied in both their current academic and future professional environments.

Course highlights:

- Practice with complex and nuanced critical thinking, argumentation, problem-solving, and public speaking skills
- Challenging, relevant, and interesting content taken from contemporary sources

Perfect for students who:

- Utilize limited or informal solution-building and analysis methods despite a systematic approach to problem solving

After the course, students will be better able to:

- Understand connections between world issues, including stakeholders involved, their motivations, and the related interplay of politics, economics, and other relevant factors

Academic Enrichment Programs

Grade 10-12 Writing, Discussion, and Thinking

Designed to prepare students for both the academic rigor and discussion-driven learning environment of upper secondary school and the first years of university and college. The focus is on presenting students with salient challenging topics and critical thinking frameworks to analyze them. This will be set in the context of a lively, discussion-driven academic course in which students will engage intellectually in a wide range of high-level reading material. Students will be expected and encouraged to actively raise questions, challenge opinions, and even lead discussions of their own. The culmination of each lesson is a presentation after which students receive immediate feedback from the instructor and their peers. Ultimately, students in this course develop all-around communication and thinking skills which help them excel in upper-secondary school and university classrooms.

Perfect for students who:

- Present strong points but may lack clarity in verbal and written work
- Make general claims that are not supported by relevant, compelling evidence
- Need to develop more initiative and confidence to participate in class discussions
